MARCH OF DIMES DRIVE GETS UNDER WAY HERE

The March of Dimes, January 15-30, needs more generous community support than ever before to replenish funds of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis depleted fighting last summer's polio epidemic—second greatest in the nation's history, J. H. Hays, Chairman of the 1947 campaign committee here, asserted today.

National Foundation President Basil O'Connor, he said, has revealed that still incomplete figures indicate the 1946 polio toll will exceed 20,000 victims, the vast majority of whom depend solely on the March of Dimes as the only means of restoration of health and future usefulness in their community.

Terming this year's March of Dimes appeal the most urgent in the National Foundation's history, Mr. Hays pointed out that last summer's epidemics got off to the earliest recorded start for any polio season, explaining that epidemics usually begin in the late June or early July. In 1946, however, the end of May saw March of Dimes funds fighting outbreaks raging in three states: Florida, Texas and Alabama.

The class is being instructed by E. V. Walton, member of the faculty at A & M. The class is a teachers course and in the main is stressing how to teach veterans in the Vocational Schools along with other advantages.

All teachers in Milam County Vocational Schools have enrolled and a few from surrounding counties plus a number of teachers from the high schools of the county, said Mr. Hicks.

Schools for veterans in this county are now well established, thanks to the efforts of Mr. Hicks, and others and results are being shown. The new educational course was mapped out here in January 3.

Mr. Hicks said that two more teachers have been employed in the Vocational Schools. They are Sidney McQuary of Sharp who is a mid-term graduate of A & M College. He will be located at Thorndale.

Home Owner And Tax Payer Complains; One Of Many Who Ask Why

For a number of years, I have been a law abiding citizen of this city. Does it not seem strange how we all can talk about what we can do, what we should do and never do?

I as a citizen and tax payer have pleaded with the city governmental officials about conditions in and around my neighborhood. I also asked that the conditions of the streets and a crossing at the railroad be fixed. This having been a continuous plea, I was only given their word for "considerations". To this date the only consideration I've gotten is a bill of higher city taxation. Why? It seems as though the railroad company has taken upon itself "to fence me in and others out". Upon what grounds can this be done?

Can not there be something done about this matter? I am fully aware of the fact we just emerged from war and materials are scarce. But the facts remain—What was done before the war? and does the city permit the Railroad Company to blockade the only lanes of passage to and from one to the other? If so what next?

Signed,

W. H. BURKS,
Better known as Stinah.
Home owner on 21st street.

HEART STROKE FATAL TO WIDELY KNOWN RESIDENT

(Saturdays Daily)

Monta Thomas died suddenly from a heart attack at his home in Cameron at 1:50 p. m. Friday, December 10.

Mr. Thomas had been critically ill from a heart ailment for some time but had been at his place of business in the forenoon.

On April 18, 1942 he resigned as Fire Chief in which place he had served for 30 years, having been named to head the Department of the City Government in 1912. He had been a fireman for several years prior to that time.

Born in Franklin, in Robertson county, he had been a resident of Cameron for 55 years. His father, the late George A. Thomas was a native of England and a Pharmacist who established the George A. Thomas & Sons drug store here in 1892.

Mr. Thomas was associated with his brother Rueh A. Thomas in the operation of the drug store and farming interests.

Mr. Thomas, both as a business man and civic leader, had served his community in many ways but was perhaps best known for his leadership of the Cameron Volunteer Fire Department. Around this department through the years are correlated the growth and development of the city. When he became Chief the equipment was horse drawn. As in his own business he strove for the best in service and built up traditions that will remain as guiding inspiration in any future development of the city's fire fighting services.

Mr. Thomas was a member of the First Presbyterian Church and had been a Deacon for more than a quarter century. He had also served for many years as Treasurer of the church. The development of the George A. Thomas & Sons drug store is one of the best traditions of business in the city and the Thomas name is synonymous with the highest standards of ethics and the progress of this community for more than a half century.

In this a din other fields of community life Mr. Thomas found means of expressing his extraordinary worth and evidence of the appreciation of his life was abundant upon every hand as the people displayed genuine sorrow over his untimely passing.

Funeral services were to be held from the family residence at 506 East 23rd Street, at 3 p. m. Sunday, January 11.

Rev. E. O. Harrell, minister at First Presbyterian Church, will conduct the services and interment will be made in Oak Hill Cemetery with the Marek-Burns Funeral Home directing arrangements.

Surviving are his mother, Mrs. George A. Thomas, two brothers, Rush A. Thomas of Cameron and Walter Thomas of Strawn, Texas; two sisters, Mrs. Albert Triggs of Houston and Miss Clara Thomas of Cameron.

The body is at the family residence. Active pallbearers will be: W. O. Newton, Edgar Ditto, Frank Monroe, Eolwood Chamberlain, Frank Richter, Judd G. Davis, John McLerran and H. F. Smith.

Honorary pallbearers will be: Elders and Deacons of the Presbyterian Church and members of the Cameron Volunteer Fire Department.

She had made her home in Snyder for a number of years and was the mother of Mrs. Jack Caperton who resides there.

Mrs. Harper was the former Miss Ophelia Harris and was reared in the Jones Prairie community.

Holiday visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Weido and family of Buckholts were Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Caddess and son of Winona, Mississippi, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Caddess and son of Bryan, Mrs. Ada Caddess, little Miss Wanda Lou Teagel of Edna, Mrs. Ethel Brockenbush and Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Edmondson and family of Cameron.

Comfortably chatting in one of the Southwest Texas State College's new apartments for married veterans are Willard B. Skelton, Jr., student veteran of Cameron, Texas, and President J. G. Flowers. Eighty-five additional apartments such as this one occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Skelton have been recently made available for married veterans wishing to enroll for the spring semester, January 28.

MONTA THOMAS SERVED 30 YEARS AS FIRE CHIEF

Monta Thomas who died at his home here early Friday afternoon, January 10, served for a longer period of time as Fire Chief, than any other man in the history of the Department.

When he first came to the department the fire fighting equipment was horse drawn and he was to see motorized equipment installed and the organization develop into one of the most efficient in all Texas under his leadership.

On April 18, 1942 Mr. Thomas resigned as Fire Chief. He had served 30 years, first heading the department in 1912. Reproduced here is his letter of resignation in part:

"Some 32 years ago, at which time I answered the call of duty as your Fire Chief, beside Old Tom and Jerry. Many of you remember old Tom and Jerry, as they stood in the stalls, waiting the sound of the gong, ready for duty. Fire fighters they were. They have long since gone the way of all faithful fire horses must go."

"The Old Fire Chief has now served his day and at my Doctor's orders, tend you my resignation. It is now my time to go."

"I regret to leave those volunteers, loyal, faithful, brave, heroic and gallant men who respond at every call regardless of the conditions. May you always give every consideration to those who make up this department."

On April 21, 1942 the City Council, unanimously adopted a long resolution recounting the services Mr. Thomas had rendered as Chief and reluctantly accepted his resignation.

Members of the Volunteer Fire Department, some days later, held a reception at which time they presented their retiring Chief with a beautiful and ornate ring which he wore with ever increasing pride and appreciation.

Remains of Laurence C. Schiller, Found Buried With Comrades Near Hong Kong, China; Admiral Swanson Writes Parents Here

The remains of Laurence C. Schiller, Naval aviator who lost his life in combat over Hong Kong, China have been found and a letter has just been received by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Schiller in Cameron.

This letter was written from Washington by Rear Admiral C. A. Swanson, Surgeon General of the United States Navy as follows: Mr. and Mrs. Edward Otto Schiller 604 East 11th Street Cameron, Texas

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Schiller:

You have been informed by the Navy Department that your son, Laurence Cornelius Schiller, Aviation Radioman, second class, U. S. Naval Reserve, was reported missing in action as of January 16, 1945, when his plane was lost during an attack on enemy shipping in the vicinity of Hong Kong, China, and later that he was presumed dead as of January 17, 1946. There recently was submitted to this Bureau a Report of Interment of four unknown decedents reburied in a common grave in the Hungjao Road Cemetery, Shanghai, China, grave 48, row 3, plot "P".

According to Chinese records these remains were of American airmen recovered from the Hong Kong area. However, identification dental charts were taken from three upper jaw bones and two lower found with the remains and submitted to the Bureau for a check of the dental charts on file of personnel known to have lost their lives in the Hong Kong area. The comparison of the identification dental charts with the dental record of your son established the fact that his remains are among the four in this grave. Identification also was made in one other case.

Since the identity of two individuals is known, when the remains of service personnel are returned to the United States, as provided for by law, the remains of all in this grave will be returned and reinterred in a National Cemetery, the selection of which will be determined by the Office of the Quartermaster General, War Department. The marker to be placed at the grave will be inscribed with the name of your son and his other identified crewmate and two unknown. You will be informed as to the selection of the National Cemetery for reinterment.

My deepest sympathy is extended to you in the fact that your son's remains may not be returned to you but there may be comfort in the fact that his remains will finally rest in the soil of the country for which he died.

Sincerely yours,
C. A. SWANSON
Rear Admiral (MC)
Surgeon General, U. S. Navy
J. W. ROHRBACK,
By direction.

Awning Manufacturing Company Seeks Dealer

The Slat-O-Wood Awning Manu-facturing Company of Austin an-nounced this week that assurance of a plentiful supply of material has permitted an expansion of its out-lets, and the company is now seeking a dealer in Cameron.

Robert Kinnan, company sales manager, said the awning dealership here would be an ideal side-line for a lumber company, home builder, contractor, decorator, metal shop, or carpenter. The type of awning the com-pany manufactures is used on busi-ness firms, homes, factories and of-fice buildings.

The dealership here would be ex-clusive for the town, Kinnan said. At present if this type of life-time awning is wanted here it must be obtained from an out-of-town deal-er or ordered direct from the fac-tory.

Interested persons were requested by Kinnan to write to the company P. O. Box 1055, Austin, Texas, for details.

W. H. Stafford, assessor and col-lector of taxes for the city of Cam-eron, has been made head of the de-partment which was merged with that of the Secretary and Treasurer.

The action in manning the new department was taken by the govern-ment in regular session on last Tues-day night.

Mr. Stafford now becomes secre-tary and treasurer along with his old duties as assessor and collector. The city council has increased his salary to offset additional duties and allowed a full time employee.

The saving over the merger was not as high as expected but it is said that about one thousand dollars a year would be saved in administrative costs.

The merger was made when Dan Tyson was named county judge. Mr. Tyson was secretary and treasurer.

HOT WATER

You need it more than ever!

Make Sure You Get it With Proper Size Heater!

If you are planning on buying one of those do-everything home laundries or automatic dish washers, take steps immediately to consult your gas company or dealer about a worry-free auto-matic water heater that will supply enough hot water for them to operate.

The average requirement of an automatic home laundry is about 40 gallons of 140-degree water in 80 minutes. And keep in mind the many other household uses for hot water. New automatic gas water heaters are designed specifically to meet this need if they are properly sized.

Pleasure and Profit Club Meets With Mrs. E. O. Harrell, Jr.

"Flower arrangement is an art belonging to the homemakers as well as the florist", declared Mrs. Willis H. Dismukes in a talk to the Pleasure and Profit Club, at a recent meeting. As an aid to flower arrangement the following cardinal rules were presented:

1. Select material available in garden, on roadside or at the florist.
2. Decide on placement on the arrangement and relate the design to surroundings.
3. Picture in your mind what the finished arrangement is to look like.
4. Select containers which best fit into your picture.
5. Decide what means of mechanical control will be most helpful for flowers, vase and type of arrangement.
6. Place highest and widest lines first to form an outline and work downward and forward, leaving detail until last.

7. Give arrangement critical survey. Remove any flower, bud or leaf that does not add beauty to entire picture.

These rules were aptly observed in the lovely unique floral arrangements in her home, when Mrs. E. O. Harrell, Jr. was hostess to the club on January 9.

In the absence of the president, Mrs. Earl Moseley, the business session was presided over by Mrs. W. T. Whatley, Jr.

"Bachelor's Daughters" Exciting Screen Hit At Cameron Theatre Sat.

Something new, exciting and significant in screen entertainment is promised when "The Bachelor's Daughters" comes to the Cameron Theatre on Saturday thru United Artists release.

Enlisting a distinguished cast of outstanding screen favorites, including Gail Russell, Ann Dvorak, Claire Trevor, Adolphe Menjou, Billie Burke, and Jane Wyatt, this Andrew Stone production presents for the first time on the screen the young American pianist, Eugene List, who won world fame when he played for the Big Three at the Potsdam Conference.

The production is given elaborate and unique treatment. In its sumptuous settings and the manner in which the drama is presented and developed, it sets a new high in lavish and imaginative values.

Action and locale range from a modest Manhattan apartment to a millionaire's mansion on Long Island—from a ritzy Fifth Avenue department store to a play-boy's yacht club on Long Island Sound.

High spot among the lavish and authentic sets of the production is the grand salon of a mansion on Long Island, where a major part of the story is unfolded. This salon is actually the grand ballroom of the late Cornelius Vanderbilt II's fabulous Fifth Avenue mansion, which had been in storage since the house was dismantled in 1927.

Andrew Stone acted in the triple capacity of producer, author and director, and was thus enabled to put into effect literally some advanced ideas on dramatic construction and production.

The plot of the story itself is unique and refreshing. Four salesgirls, played by Gail Russell, Claire Trevor, Jane Wyatt and Ann Dvorak, determined to crash out of poverty into the big money class, concoct a scheme to rent a mansion in Long Island and pose as a wealthy and aristocratic family. The girls persuade Billie Burke, forgotten silent screen star, and Adolphe Menjou, parsimonious floorwalker, to pose as their "parents."

The complications that ensue from their endeavours to keep a "front" and realize their ambitions are at times hilarious, at others almost tragic.

Byron Neal, new Commissioner for Precinct 3 and who lives in Rockdale, was a business visitor in Cameron Monday. The new court will meet Thursday, January 16 for their first regular session of the new year.

CHAMBER COMMERCE DIRECTORS TO MEET

Directors of the Chamber of Commerce will meet to-night it was stressed by Mrs. Minnie Nell Lewis, Secretary.

One of the pending business matters is the selection of a Manager. The Directors recently invited a trained man to take the place but he rejected it. Another was employed elsewhere and now another application is pending.

No money was included in the Budget to pay the Manager but that seems to make little difference to the Directors. They can wreck the budget and take the money from other activities which might be good operational business since the Chamber needs a manager.

Unless the Chamber of Commerce goes ahead with a better schedule of accomplishments, contributors to the budget may question whether it is worth supporting.

Crisis On Football Banquet Tickets

Authorities who are planning the football banquet here on Thursday night, January 16 were at a loss Tuesday to gauge their reservations for they do not know the number of tickets sold.

Committees in charge of ticket sales are urged to report to Woodrow Lowe at the Cameron Hotel as soon as possible.

Tickets to the number of 500 were printed and distributed but there has been no report on the number sold.

Gene Blake of Hearne is in Cameron to be with his wife who is a patient in Newton Memorial Hospital.

Dr. M. R. Carner of Rockdale is a surgery patient in the Newton Memorial Hospital. Friends of Dr. Carner here and in Rockdale will be glad to know of his good progress since the operation.

"Lady Luck" Hilarious Story Screen Epic on Cameron Screen Thurs.

Weaving its hilarious story around the hectic love affair between a gambler and a gambler's anti-gambling granddaughter, RKO Radio's "Lady Luck" stars Robert Young, Barbara Hale and Frank Morgan in one of the sprightliest comedy offerings of the season and opens at the Cameron Thursday.

With Beverly Hills and Nevada's Las Vegas as its principal settings, the gay plot tells what happens when Larry Scott, successful professional gambler, meets and falls for pretty Mary Audrey, who detests all games of chance as much as she does on her rascally old grandfather, William.

Larry agrees to reform if Mary will marry him, and they head for Las Vegas for the ceremony. But an hour after the wedding Mary misunderstands a quixotic gesture by Larry and decides to get a divorce. Larry's pal, "Sacramento Sam," (James Gleason) tries to straighten matters out by inveigling Mary into trying her luck at a roulette wheel, in the hope that she will like the excitement and be more tolerant of Larry, unaware that the heroine's ancestry is filled with highly ardent gamblers.

The scheme backfires in a startling manner, with many side-splitting situations and much happens before the young couple are finally reunited in a surprise climax.

Yoemen Climbing Up Slowly In Basketball Schedules; Win One

Leo Jackson's Basketball Yoemen, were climbing up slowly. They have finally won a game and are showing a fair offense but are weak on defense.

In the Rosebud tournament they lost to Marlin 30 to 43. High point man was Wallis with 7 and Bolin of Marlin racked up 11 points.

Saturday morning Cameron defeated Chilton 34 to 14 to get its first win of the year. T. J. O'Neill was high for Cameron with 11 points and Boyd was high for Chilton with 4.

In the afternoon Cameron played Belton and lost 40 to 31. Joe Hawkirs led the Yoemen with 15 points and Caldwell was high for Belton with 13 points.

The conference schedule opens Tuesday night here with Belton. The B Squad game begins at 7:30 p. m. and the A Squad game begins at 8:30 p. m.

The Gymnasium is heated and comfortable.

Mrs. Kinard Hughes of Houston, daughter of Mrs. Matt Baggerly is a patient in the Newton Memorial Hospital.

WEEKLY NEWS ANALYSIS

Major Legislative Tasks Face GOP Congress; U. S. to Hold Pacific Bases for Defense

Released by Western Newspaper Union.

(EDITOR'S NOTE: When opinions are expressed in these columns, they are those of Western Newspaper Union's news analysts and not necessarily of this newspaper.)

With the collegiate football season in full swing, student shenanigans are with us, as evidenced in the Princeton undergraduates' foray onto Franklin Field, Philadelphia, to tear down the goalposts after the Tigers had upset Pennsylvania. Resisting two squadrons of police, the Princetonians tore down the uprights, joyously carted them away.

CONGRESS:

Task Ahead

Women awaiting their turn to vote in Chicago exclaimed belligerently: "This is the last line we're waiting in."

Voters elsewhere seemed to sing the same tune and as they turned out the ins and sent a Republican congress to Washington in what was tantamount to a landslide, the GOP found itself faced with the task of fulfilling campaign promises: Doing away with scarcities and encouraging production; paring federal expenditures and reducing taxes; balancing the rights of management and labor, and husbanding U. S. resources.

Despite the Republican sweep, political observers looked to no smooth sailing in Washington during the 80th congress, what with GOP majorities on Capitol Hill and a Democratic president in the White House. Armed with the veto power, Mr. Truman was in position to check any conservative approach to the solution of the nation's problems in opposition to his own liberal program, raising the prospect of a tug-of-war between the legislative and executive departments of government.

In possessing control of the legislative machinery, the Republicans bid fair to make maximum political capital of their advantage with an eye to the 1948 presidential race. A series of investigations into the activities of government officials during the war along the line of the Garsson quiz and probings into Communist infiltration of federal bureaus were in the offing.

Of GOP presidential aspirants, Gov. Thomas E. Dewey of New York and Senator-elect John W. Bricker of Ohio made the most impressive showings. Running strong in the Democratic stronghold of New York City and sweeping the rural regions, Dewey was re-elected with the largest plurality ever given a gubernatorial candidate in the Empire state. Bricker was never stretched in winning hands down.

PACIFIC:

To Keep Bases

Stepping into a reported dispute between the services and state department over this country's retention of Pacific bases for defense, President Truman reaffirmed his earlier position that the U. S. should exercise a sole trusteeship over these outposts as long as necessary.

Coming as the United Nations assembly was to consider the ticklish question of trusteeship of former enemy colonies, Mr. Truman's statement reflected the state department viewpoint. The services, on the other hand, reportedly had called for outright control of such strategic islands as Iwo, Okinawa, Saipan, Truk, the Palaus, Kwajalein, Eniwetok, Majuro, Ulithi and Marcus.

Despite the strategic import of

TIRES:

More than 99 per cent of the nation's total passenger tire output is going to American motorists, with export markets receiving less than one per cent of the total output—389,387 of the 41,451,935 passenger car tires produced between January 1 and August 31.

Bulk of factory shipments were sold as replacements during the eight-month period, more than in any year since 1931. The automotive industry received 5,887,121 units for equipment through August 31.

U. S. control of Pacific bases, the bitterest bickering in the U. N. over trusteeships is expected to develop in the disposition of Italy's North African colonies. While U. S. and British land and naval forces crushed the axis forces in this area, Russia has sought joint control of these territories situated along Britain's imperial lifeline from the Far East.

RUSSIA:

Rising From Ruins

Looking back on the first year of Russian reconstruction, the Red masters of the Kremlin boasted of the great strides achieved in restoring the gutted economy of the country.

Advances were noted on all industrial fronts, in all sections of the vast Soviet union from the Danube to the Kurile islands in the Pacific. Outstanding accomplishments included:

—Operation of five new blast and 21 open hearth furnaces in the metallurgical industry and the restoration of 21 old blast and 50 open hearth furnaces in the ravaged Ukraine.

—Opening of 20 large coal mines in the south, a big mechanized pit in the Urals and 14 properties on Sakhalin island north of Japan.

—Construction of huge power plants in the southern industrial region, Moscow and in the Siberian province of Yakutsk.

—Excavation of a new canal from the White sea to the Baltic and the start of equipping the South Siberian trunk line of 2,500 miles.

FOREIGN MINISTERS:

Polish Treaties

Having taken a short breath after the Paris conference, the U. S., British, Russian and French foreign ministers resumed their deliberations over peace treaties for the axis satellites on the 37th floor of the Waldorf-Astoria hotel in New York.

As in Paris, no easy tasks faced the Big Four as they sought to compromise their differences, with the U. S. and Britain seeking to obtain a wedge in the Soviet dominated Danubian basin and the Russians striving to extend their influence to the Adriatic.

Final terms for Italy posed the most ticklish problem, with the Soviet supported Yugoslav government objecting to strong international control of the strategic Adriatic port of Trieste and calling for self-rule under dominant Communist influence. Meanwhile, Italy protested against partition of the eastern province of Venezia Giulia, claiming that it would place a large Italian population under Yugoslav rule.

Continuing to carry the ball for Tito, Russia challenged Greece's right to as much reparations from Italy as Yugoslavia. While both countries were scheduled to get 100 million dollars in payments, the U. S. pointed out that the Yugoslavs had acquired over 200 million dollars worth of industrial equipment in former Italian territory to enhance their take considerably.

Good News for Birds

Indications are that California will provide most of the nation's sunflower seed, used mainly as bird feed, this year. Production is estimated at 4,200,000 pounds, which is 89 per cent of the national total.

This is far in excess of output in Missouri with 300,000 pounds, and Illinois, with 240,000 pounds. Total production for the nation is forecast at 4,740,000 pounds.

NOTICE Change of Hours

We will be closed all day Sunday and Sunday night until further notice.

We will greatly appreciate the co-operation of our Customers and Friends in placing this new schedule into effect, so that our employes may be given this time off from their duties at this station.

And Now, Its Corn On The Cob With Potatoes; New Magic Soil Feat

It's that magic soil in Milam county again.

This time it's corn on the cob and with potatoes to make it more edible and attractive.

Mrs. John Rummel of Route 1 Burlington, brought to The Herald on Wednesday an Irish potato vine which she had taken out of her garden. Attached is a corn cob and at the ends of the cob are two sizeable potatoes. The vine grew straight through the heart of the cob and rung out a potato at each end. Also imbedded in the large end of the cob is a smaller potato.

We not only grow what we want but grow it any way we want it in the Magic Soil of Milam county.

Why I Should Trade In Cameron

(By DORIS JACKSON)

Many of us never stop to think why we should trade in Cameron. I should trade in Cameron and give our merchants a chance to get the goods that I want. If my merchant doesn't have the stock on hand at the time I want it, instead of running to another city, I should give him a chance to get the merchandise for me.

When I trade outside of Cameron, the money naturally goes out of my town. On the other hand, if I trade in Cameron, the money stays here and in that way many improvements can be brought about. Our streets could be improved, a library could be built, and more business concerns would spring up. Thus more people would have jobs and higher wages would be paid. People would want to move to Cameron. Our population would be larger.

When we students graduate, many of us go to larger cities to get jobs. If our money stays in Cameron, it will become a larger and better town, so we will want to stay here and work.

These are only a few of the many reasons why I should Trade in Cameron. Let's everyone of us trade here and see how much better our home town will become.

Herbert Huebner was a business visitor in Cameron this week.

Henry Hlavacek of Route 1, made a business trip to Cameron Friday.

Why I Should Trade In Cameron

(By MARGARET HORSTMANN)

The success of our country depends upon the loyalty of its inhabitants. We all agree on this and think anyone who does not is not an American. The success of our own community depends upon me, the rest of my friends and my neighbors. By trading, working, and co-operating together our town or community will prosper and grow, becoming a better place for us and the future generations to live in.

We, the community, are always complaining about our street, lights and the conditions of the various other projects that were completed long ago. We want our community to have the best of everything but how can we if our parents and friends go other places to trade. By trading elsewhere I would be sabotaging my community. Cameron is and would be a better trading center if we would spend our earnings here, for after all are not we making our living here? Surely you can not expect your business to be profitable if you give your money to some other town or city.

If I trade in Cameron, then the money I spend will stay in Cameron and someone else will trade with me; thus, I can bring in newer and better merchandise to sell to my customers.

By using this never ending cycle, let us keep Cameron progressing. Remember that a chain is as strong as its weakest link. Cameron is as strong as its trade makes it.

Choose the Right Lamp Bulb for the Right Job . . .

300 WATTS

Here is a bulb that is extra kind to the eyes. Use in reflector floor lamps, as a main light source in the reading corner, in torchere lamps for general illumination, as a flood light in the yard . . . and wherever plenty of light is needed. One large bulb, correctly used to avoid glare, is more economical than two smaller ones of equal total voltage.

150 WATTS

The 150-watt bulb is just the right size for your reading lamp, for junior floor lamps and bridge lamps, for indirect ceiling fixtures in small rooms, and for kitchen units. Always shield bulbs from direct view to avoid glare.

100 WATTS

The 100-watt bulb is used in small and medium-sized table lamps, end-table lamps, wall lamps and pin-up lamps. Use with shade or diffusing bowl.

60 WATTS

The 60-watt bulb is a cheery fellow, used in candle sockets of floor lamps for reading, in boudoir lamps, and in hallways and closets.

Remember . . . With TP&L low-cost electric service, your electric light today costs so little that you can use ALL THE LIGHT YOU NEED in your home for only a few cents a day. Keep all light sockets filled with proper size bulbs for plenty of light. Keep an extra supply of bulbs at hand for replacement.

WAR DEAD WILL BE RETURNED FOR BURIAL

The bodies of American war dead will soon be coming home, it was announced here to-day by Emmett Streetman, 11th District Commander of the American Legion who with Mrs. Streetman was in Austin to attend a meeting of the Executive Committee.

According to Mr. Streetman, the work of returning the bodies of those buried overseas will begin in October or November. They will be received at two main points in the country, New York and San Francisco. In Texas they will be shipped from Fort Worth and San Antonio to designated points where relatives request.

Four points of disposition are announced, 1. Leave them where they are now buried. 2. Bring them to their homes. 3. Bury them in a National Cemetery. 4. If of foreign birth they can be sent to their own countries.

Special ships are to be used and crews will be picked. Aboard there will be no hilarities, no intoxicants, and flags will be flown at half mast.

Information on the plan to return the dead was brought before the meeting in Austin by Lt. Col. C. D. Castle, of the Army Grave Registration command.

Relatives who desire may ask Veterans Organizations to care for funeral services but private services may be had and there are no obligations to the Veterans organizations.

The Committee passed a resolution asking a law to prohibit the shooting of fire works anywhere in Texas. The resolution is due to be presented to the National convention. Its passage was unanimous.

Laurence Michalka was high point man for Cameron with 8 and Billy Hanes was second with 6 points.

Shaw was high point man for Caldwell, scoring 16 points.

Starters for Cameron were T. J. O'Neill, Laurence Michalka, Joe Hawkins, Russell Wallis and Billy Hanes.

The only two games the Yoemen lost in 1946 were to the Caldwell team and the Hornets are back this year with the same team.

Monte Hale Packs 'Em In At Milam; Weather Fails to Stop Folks

Monte Hale, star of western screen roles, packed 'em in at the Milam Thursday.

The weather was bad but that did not keep the fans away. The youngsters made up the bulk of those who paid admission to see Hale on the stage but the older folks came too. Streets were jammed and parking space was at a premium all through the afternoon and in the evening.

Roy Rogers and his horse Trigger was starring in an adjoining block at the Cameron but Monte got the major part of the crowd.

The theatre was packed. Dean White said early Friday that the crowd was up to expectations and had the weather been fair it is doubtful if the theatre could have accommodated the people who wanted to see the star of "Out California Way."

NOTICE To The Public

All of the land which I own or have rented in Milam County is being and will continue to be poisoned against grasshoppers, other insects, and other pests until March 1, 1947. My land is posted according to the requirements of the law. ## To America's Producers, America's Thanks!

As this new year begins, America's ranchers and farmers are busy with their winter work—feeding and caring for their livestock. And all America is again properly grateful to you who produce the food to keep us the world's best fed people.

To you who ride the range from Montana to Texas... whose teams and tractors till the nation's fertile acres... who have labored hard, long hours... who, with soil and seed, sunshine and rain, grass and grain, have achieved miracle after miracle of food production—to you America gives thanks! Thanks for the part you have had in all-time record crops of wheat and corn... for bumper yields of small grains... for livestock numbers at high levels... for soaring dairy and poultry production. This abundance of food which you have produced means better nutrition for millions of families—because good nutrition is just good food that's good for you.

Vital as it is, production is only part of the nutritional job. Food must be processed. It has to be transported from surplus-producing areas to the markets where there are great numbers of people to eat it. Here is where Swift & Company comes into the picture. It's our job to provide many of the services required in bringing the foods which you produce to the dinner tables of the nation. Together we are in a vitally important industry. Because nutrition is our business and yours, together we can help build a stronger, healthier America.

Things are NOT always as they seem

A 1-inch pipe and a 4-inch pipe run water into gallon pails. It seems as if the 4-inch pipe would fill 4 times as many pails in a given time. The truth is that it will fill 16 gallon pails while the 1-inch pipe is filling one.

When you read something like this: "Meat in commercial storage on January 1 was about 590,000,000 pounds", it sounds like a lot of meat.

Soda Bill Sez:

... that labor saved is money made.
... speak well of your enemies—you made them.

He Puts the NEW in Nutrition

We'd like you to meet a Swift scientist, Dr. H. W. Schultz. He is head of the nutrition division of our research laboratories. The work of Dr. Schultz and his associates is mighty important to all of us in the livestock-meat industry. They develop new products which open new markets for meats. This widens outlets for your livestock.

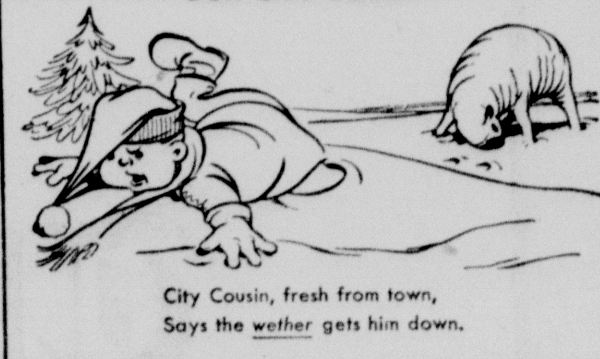

Dr. Schultz is the father of three children. As a scientist he knew growing children needed the body-building proteins of meat. As a father he knew the trouble of scraping and straining meats for the baby and dicing meat for the older children. An idea was born: perhaps Swift & Company could discover a way to prepare canned meats suitable for babies. A research project was undertaken. The scientists went to work!

The research took more than two years. The Swift people consulted with leading doctors, child specialists. They agreed that special meats for babies would be a good thing. Many methods of preparing various kinds of meats were tried. Hundreds of feeding tests were made by families with small children. Finally, six kinds of meat were approved by the doctors, nutritionists, mothers, and the babies themselves. Placed on the market in test cities, these products won immediate acceptance. They are now being sold in many cities, and facilities for their manufacture are being expanded.

These new products—strained and diced meats for babies—create a big new market for meats. There are millions of baby appetites to satisfy.

Martha Logan's Recipe for Navy Bean Soup

1 pint dried navy beans	1/2 tablespoon salt
2 quarts water	1/4 teaspoon pepper
1 cup sliced onion	1/4 teaspoon dry mustard
1 cup diced celery	2 tablespoons flour
3 tablespoons butter	4 frankfurters

Soak beans in water for several hours or overnight. Drain, add water. Fry onion and celery in butter. Add to beans, simmer 3 to 4 hours or until beans are soft, adding more water as water cooks away. When tender, save out 1 cup beans. Rub other beans through sieve. Reheat to boiling point. Add seasonings and flour mixed with 1/4 cup water. Garnish with hot sliced frankfurters and whole beans. Yield: 4 servings.

Meat Packers' Risks

Meat is perishable. It cannot be held for prices to go up. Like all meat packers, Swift & Company must sell, within a few days, this perishable product for what it will bring—no matter what price we paid for it.

We take risks in both buying and selling. In buying livestock the meat packer must pay the price established by competitive bidding of over 26,000 slaughterers. If the meat packer overestimates the quality of an animal, or the amount of meat the animal will produce, or the market demand for the meat, he will lose money. Hidden bruises, wounds, or other defects can create losses on any animal.

In selling, the meat packer must also follow the market trends established by those who buy the meats. He stands the risk that meat demand will fall off and prices decline between the day he buys the livestock and the day he sells the meat—also the risk of accidents and delays in transit which can wash out his profit.

An average profit of less than 2% on sales is a small return for taking these substantial business risks.

Know—Don't guess—in 1947

by Tyrus R. Timm
Texas A. & M. College

An adequate record book is an extremely useful and valuable tool. It usually pays good dividends for the few minutes it takes out of the day's work to keep it up to date.

Specifically, a record book helps a farmer or rancher:

- Operate in a businesslike way.
- Learn more about the details of his business than ever before.
- Know exactly how much he is making from his land and his work.
- Find out the weak spots in his enterprises.
- Tell whether or not his operations are working out as planned.
- Prepare a plan for future operations.
- Itemize investments, receipts, and expenses.
- Figure the efficiency of his production methods.
- Provide a record of all business transactions.
- Keep track of bills owed by or to the farm or ranch.
- Establish a sound basis for credit.
- Comply with government programs.
- Prepare income tax returns.

There are farm and ranch record books especially prepared for each state which can help you save time and money. Write to your state agricultural college and obtain one. Properly used, it will give you a better understanding of your business and may open the way to increased profits.
